League Monday.

Ban Jacinto again proved its provess in athletics by defeating Acy, the champion of the west side schools in the final baseball game of the Grammar School Athletic league restarday at Rio Gramda park. This is the second shield won this year by San Jacinto, they also being the baset-ball champions.

Yealarday's game was not so good as seeme others in the league. The second was 10 to 4. In the very first liming Acy took a lead of two runs, which San Jacinto did not tis until the fifth when the Acy plicher want lander, letting one after another of the cast siders, bat kard off him. A change of pitchers did not materially help them. The San Jacinto boys, as usual, ended strong. After the fifth ming they did not allow Acy a sin-bie basebit.
